

Professional Training

We offer professional training in Close Interval Survey (CIPS) and DCVG survey techniques as well as data analysis at our facility or yours.

The Syllabus for the course is as follows:

Classroom

Basic Corrosion why corrosion occurs
Coatings and their affect on corrosion
Cathodic Protection how it works
What is ECDA
Programming the Cath-Tech current interrupters
Programming the Cath-Tech Hexcorder
Programming the Smart Logger and Mini Logger
Data retrieval and storage
Data analysis and graphing

Field Work

Safely installing current interrupters
Installing Smart Loggers and data loggers
Close Interval Survey Techniques (CIPS)
DCVG Techniques without a pipe connection
DCVG Techniques with a pipe connection

Iowa USA

Atlanta Georgia

The course is three days of intensive work both in the classroom and in the field. If undertaken at your facility, access to a pipeline with an impressed current cathodic protection system will be required.

Rio De Janeiro Brazil

El Paso Texas

Gronigan Holland

Call today to book your professional training course. Phone ++1 905 857-1050, Fax ++1 905 857-3499 Email ctl@corrosion-rust.com